As the Chief Happiness Architect and Culture Expert Chuck Salvo guides organizations in finding their purpose and assisting them to shape their culture into one that gives them a competitive edge. Chuck, owner of Salvo Innovative Solutions, LLC is a distinguished leader and speaker in the realm of cultural and organizational development. With over 30 years of experience as a talent development and culture change agent, Chuck stands as a beacon in the realm of organizational transformation.

As a former Leader at the Disney Institute for 15 years, Chuck honed his craft in driving employee engagement and fostering cultures of excellence. He brings his wealth of expertise to organizations worldwide, helping them to find their purpose and to shape their culture into a competitive advantage.

Chuck's journey began with a degree in Culinary Arts from Johnson & Wales University, followed by a BS in Hospitality Management. This foundation led him to an illustrious career in hospitality and professional development, where he worked at world-class resorts such as Hyatt Hotels, Hershey Entertainment and Resort Company, Hilton Hotels, and Sea Pines/Harbour Town Resort. His experience extends to major PGA tournaments, community events, and multi-million-dollar Disney Park buy-outs, all of which have provided him with a wealth of practical knowledge to share with companies today.

Chuck's mission is to guide and assist people and organizations to intentionally architect happiness. He believes that any organization that has a clear understanding of its values and overall purpose is poised for greatness.
